AMÉLIE PATRY

Partner, Tax

a.patry@sevestre-associes.com

Amélie Patry acts in all areas of domestic and international tax law, encompassing both advisory and litigation services, for clients composed of individuals and companies, either French or non-French residents.

She is qualified for the activity of mandatary in real estate transactions. In this respect, she supports and advises her clients at every stage of the transaction.

As a lawyer since 2013 and a member of the Paris Bar, Amélie worked for six years at Ernst & Young (EY) law firm based in Paris, including three years in the international tax department. She created her own law firm in January 2020 and joined Sevestre & Associés as a Partner in September 2025.

She graduated from a business law and taxation degree (Master 2 and Magistère DJCE) from the Jean-Moulin Lyon III University, and completed a certificate of international trade law and taxation from the Montpellier I University.

In order to perfectly deal with all the issues of a case, Amélie involves some lawyers, notaries, auditors and foreign correspondents with whom she often works with.

She is a member of the French Institute for Tax Lawyers (IACF).
